

April, 2011

Elgin County Archives Launches YouTube Channel

Elgin County Archives has launched a dedicated YouTube channel:
<http://www.youtube.com/elgincountyarchives>.

The channel features highlights from the Archives' audiovisual collection. Videos currently uploaded include excerpts the 1970s-1980s Allview Cable 8 television program "Local History with George Thorman" focusing on the history of Talbot Street, St. Thomas; St. Thomas heritage architecture; and the life of Colonel Thomas Talbot and the founding of the Talbot Settlement; as well as an extensive interview with John Kenneth Galbraith filmed in 2002 in which the renowned economist talks about his memories of growing up in West Elgin.

The Archives acknowledges the invaluable assistance in completing this project of its long-standing community partner organization the Elgin Historical Society.